IN RE: UNITED STATES V. BOWMAN, Case No. 2:03:cr00015.

Dear Honorable Judge Pro,

On May 28th, 2010, I was arrested by Nevada State authorities in State of Nevada v. Kirk Anthony Bowman, Case No. C26448X. At the time of my arrest I was on federal probation and as a result of my arrest a federal detainer was placed on me an or around the day of my arrest. As I tired to bail-out not long after my arrest, I knew this to be true.

On November 4th, 2010, The State Court Judge Vega sentenced me to 12-34 months to run concurrent with the 24 months violation time that I received in your court with 130 days credit prior jail time. I've just been made aware of the fact that the B.O.P. is only giving me 27 days prior jail credit and I am writing to ask that I be allotted the full 130 days credit by the B.O.P. as I have a sister who is having hardship due to being totally disabled. I was her sole care provider as well as being the one to pay most of all household bills. I humbly ask your Honor to review my case and request and awarded the time requested. Thank you for your time in this matter.

Respectfully, Mr. Kirk Bowman
